

ANOTHER WEEDING OUT IS ORDERED

MEN NOT IN PERFECT PHYSICAL CONDITION MUST GO.

An Order Has Been Issued Directing That Another Physical Examination Be Made of the Men Now in Camp—Captain Gilman Presented with a Handsome Sword—Well of the Thirtieth Is a Failure. Equipment of the Regiment Is About Completed.

Special from a Staff Correspondent. Camp Alger, Dunn Loring, Va., July 25.—An order was issued yesterday directing that another physical examination be made of all the soldiers in the camp. The hospital records show that many men were accepted by the surgeons at the entrance examination who should never have been allowed to pass. It is thought that the ranks contain many more who must, in time, become a burden to the army, and to weed these out before they crowd into the hospitals is the purpose of the new order. Any man whom the regimental surgeons believe to be in any way afflicted with a physical impairment must be reported to corps headquarters. He will be given a critical examination, and he is found to be in any way unsound his discharge will be recommended. It is quite likely that a number of the Thirtieth's men will have to undergo this second test. Two epileptics have been discovered, and several are suspected of being affected with chronic complaints of an equally serious nature, and which would incapacitate them as soldiers in the eyes of the examining board. The call for all five cavalry companies coming so soon after Adjutant General Corbin's declaration that only two of them had any present prospect of going to the front has aroused new hopes in the breasts of the infantrymen, and everybody now shares the belief that possibly the adjutant general was guilty of a slight mental reservation during the interview of Tuesday night. In the face of everything that has been said to the contrary General Gobin insists that his brigade is virtually on its way to Porto Rico. He is so firmly convinced of it himself that he keeps a man on duty all night long at the telephone, which connects his headquarters with the war department. "It is said upon reliable authority," that this is in line with advice from the adjutant general, but being an office matter it will have to be accepted, if accepted at all "upon reliable authority."

THEY ARE READY. If a call should come at any time, now, the Thirtieth would be found ready. Everything it needs in the line of equipment, with the exception of 182 gun slings, has been received. These slings have been ordered and are expected to arrive any day. When they are distributed the big task of equipping the regiment will have been completed and Quartermaster Cox and his two able assistants Quartermaster Sergeant Isaac Brown and Commissary Sergeant Alfred Wormser, will be able to take a well earned rest. A petition is in circulation among the officers of the regiment for the establishment of a regimental mess. At present the officers are divided into ten messes, headquarters having one, the non-coms another and the line officers having as many messes as there are companies. It is figured that by all eating together better fare can be secured for less money, and much annoyance can be avoided. Each mess now being compelled to look after its own providing and cooking. The privilege of selling refreshments, ice cream and the like will go with the conducting of the messes. The men are enjoying much better health all around than when they were at their camp. Only one case of fever has developed since coming here and that no doubt was contracted in the old camp. Dysentery is also on the decrease and before long, it is confidently hoped that it will have been stamped out altogether.

WELL A FAILURE. The Thirtieth's well is a failure and the men face the prospect of probably another week of no water. After reaching a depth of 120 feet Saturday evening the drill was withdrawn and a pump and measuring apparatus attached to test the flow. When it was found that there was 110 feet of water in the hole there was great gratification, but when after an hour's pumping the water failed to rise and a half pipe the well went dry, showing that the flow was so meagre as to be totally useless, the gratification gave way to chagrin. It is proposed to sink the well still deeper in the hopes of finding a vein of water that will be sufficient to supply the regiment. If such a flow does not develop within a couple of days another well will likely be started. Captain Thomas E. Gilman, of Company D, was today presented with a handsome sword by the members of his command. It is inscribed in gold, has the modern fish-skin grip and is beautifully embellished in every part. The presentation was made through Lieutenant Arthur R. Foote in the presence of the whole company and many of the officers from both headquarters and line. It was such a complete surprise to Captain Gilman that he could scarcely compose himself sufficiently to speak his appreciation. There is no officer in the regiment better liked than Captain Gilman and among the officers there is none considered more efficient. T. J. Duffy.

GOSSIP OF THE CAMP.

Special from a Staff Correspondent. Camp Alger, Va., July 25.—Privates Rogers and Dolph, while on guard yesterday, captured a colored man and his wife selling liquor in the woods near the Thirtieth's lines. The men, easy keepers were kept in the guard house over night and released after being given a good scare. Private Fred Ridge, of Company B, is back. He came into camp yesterday and walking up to Captain Knebeck reported for duty. He was sent to the guard house to await court martial. He says he wanted to go home and when his application for a furlough was repeatedly refused he decided to go without one. The case of Private Kirkendall is as much a mystery as ever.

Rev. Dr. Wills, of Philadelphia, a retired army chaplain, conducted a joint service for the Eighth and Thirtieth yesterday.

quarters will repeat the mistake it made when it sent the Thirtieth here, before there was any water for its use. The King's Daughters of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church have sent a big consignment of very thoughtful gifts to the Thirtieth. Pillow cases, sheets, bandages and delicacies for the sick made up one part of the consignment and a lot of "goodies" for eight Green Ridge boys who are in the regiment made up the other. The lucky lads are: Corporal Charley Ross, Corporal John B. Hitchcock, Corporal Charles Geary, Private Ralph Gregory, Private Arthur Ridgeway, Sergeant Harry Dimmick, Corporal Will Hale and Private John D. Hull. Chaplain Stahl who was pastor of the church, superintended the distribution of the goods.

Captain Smith, of Company E, is back from a week's leave of absence. Charles Rowley, of Scranton, is the guest of Quartermaster Herbert E. Cox. Major Walter E. Wood was division officer of the day, Saturday. Musician Charles Thomas, of Company E, is back from his home in Scranton, where he was called by the serious illness of his father. Corporal W. A. Davis, Private Richard Phillips and Private William P. Williams, of Company F, are home on furloughs. Corporal Mills, of Company H, and Corporal Bradley, of Company B, are among this week's furlough men. Corporal Robert Armstrong, of Company D, is back from his furlough. Private Charles Warner, of Company D, returned last night from his furlough. Senator E. B. Hardenberg, of Honesdale, was the guest of Company E yesterday.

Benjamin Williams, son of Hon. Morgan B. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of his cousin, Lieutenant D. J. Davis, of Company F, yesterday. Mr. Williams came to camp to accompany home his brother, Private Williams, of Company C, Eighth regiment, who has been discharged because of physical disability.

Private John Gay, of Company D, was taken to the hospital yesterday suffering from the measles. It is the first case in the Thirtieth, although many other regiments have been annoyed with it to a large extent. Private George T. Griffiths, of Company F, has been discharged from the hospital, where he was sent last week suffering from nervous prostration. Private Kimball, of Company E, is back from a sojourn in Honesdale. The Thirtieth's officers have received invitations to a military ball to be given by Miss Phillips, of Falls Church, at her parents' home, "The Maples," next Friday evening. Major Keller and Lieutenant Foote are attending a dance at Leesburg tonight. It is given in honor of the First division staff. The Sixty-fifth New York band will furnish the music.

Private Alfred Atkinson, of Company B, is confined to the hospital with rheumatism. Privates Tingley and Snow, of Company G, are home on a furlough. Lieutenant Colonel Metchling, of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania, stationed at Fort Washington on the Potomac, was yesterday the guest of Lieutenant Colonel Matter. Private Duncan, of Company D, returned yesterday morning, eight days overdue. He was taken sick while at home, and has not completely recovered yet. He only came back at this time to escape being published as a deserter. Today he was sent to the hospital. Corporal Jadin, of Company E, has been permanently detailed to the commissary department. Fred Loomis, Company F's general utility man, went home yesterday on a short visit. Corporal Lona Day, of Company D, is back from his visit and varied experiences in Scranton.

Virtue gaineth, sometimes, something more than a reflex reward. This was instanced here yesterday. A crowd of thirty or forty of the boys started out for a stroll, picking blackberries by the way and incidentally looking for something good to drink. Their wanderings brought them to the little village of Vienna, four miles to the east. They arrived there just as the bell on the village church was calling the faithful to the morning services. "Let's go in. Maybe we might get an invite to dinner," some one suggested. In went the whole crowd, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, high churchmen and low churchmen and men who are not churchmen at all. Their entrance caused quite a commotion. The preacher changed his harrangue for increased contributions with which to put in new seats to a patriotic sermon with all kinds of red fire in it. The boys joined in the singing, and although the noise nearly stamped the teams that were tied outside, the people were greatly pleased. "How good of those boys to come all this distance to church," they said to themselves. Ourselves, everybody wanted to meet the soldiers after the services, and tell them personally how much they admired their deep-seated religiosity. The boys wanted to be met. They weren't a bit particular about hearing their religious fervor extolled. They preferred to have the conversation turned upon fried chicken. It was thus turned finally. Would they have time to take dinner before they started back to camp? Well, they didn't know, but rather than be contrary they decided they would take the risk. Instead they weren't hungry, but if it was insisted upon that they should go, why, of course, they would not decline. The villagers insisted, and after some well feigned hesitancy the soldiers allowed themselves to be led by twos and threes to the best houses of the town. Chicken, watermelon, pie, apple dumplings! It was a feast to hear them tell about it afterwards. That church will need a provost guard around it next Sunday. T. J. Duffy.

AGLI GIVES BAIL. Charles Kaestner, Cedar Avenue Hotelkeeper, His Bondsman. Special Officer Frank Agli was released on $500 bail taken in chambers yesterday before Judge Archibald. Charles Kaestner, the Cedar Avenue saloon keeper, qualified as bondsman. Agli was given a prisoner in charge by Alderman Millar to take to jail, and he let him get away, accidentally or otherwise.

FATHER & SONS CURED OF ITCHING RASH. I had an itching rash under my chin, which kept spreading until it was all over my body. I could not sleep but was compelled to lie awake and scratch all the time. My father and two brothers were afflicted with the same thing, at the same time. We all suffered terribly for a year and a half, trying in the meantime all the remedies we could find, but received no benefit. I bought three cakes of CUTICURA Soap and three boxes of CUTICURA (ointment) and they cured the four of us completely. RICH'D ANDERSON, Geneva, Utah.
